ALASKA FALL GRIZZLY

Was $15,500

NOW $10,000

August 20-30, 2010

This outfitter is one of only a handful of outfitters permitted to operate in the Arctic National Wildlife Refuge. Understand that the Arctic Refuge is the last great untouched wilderness on earth. It is what Montana must have been 200 years ago. This area stretches from the continental divide to the Arctic Ocean.

The area is home to an extremely abundant barren ground grizzly bear population. They pride themselves on having perhaps the best true interior grizzly bear hunt in the world.
